

Liquidity Services to Sell Surplus Assets from an Electrical Panelboard Facility Closure through its Newest Online Auction Marketplace, AllSurplus

May 14, 2020

All assets sold through “No Reserve” auction including production and plant support equipment

BETHESDA, Md., May 14, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Liquidity Services (NASDAQ: LQDT) has partnered with a leading manufacturer of electrical panelboards to sell all surplus production and plant support equipment from a recently closed facility. The site produced lighting and power electrical panelboards and all assets used in production will be sold through a “No Reserve” auction on Liquidity Services’ newest online auction marketplace, AllSurplus.com and is open for bidding starting on May 20, 2020. All assets are located in Peru, IN.

The two-day sale includes over 500 assets for sale including turret presses, press brakes, punch presses and hydraulic presses from 50 to 230 tons as well as plant support and material handling assets.

Featured assets include:

- Five Amada Turret Presses including one COMA 50 Ton Turret Press Punches, two Pega 30 Ton Turret Press Punches and two Vela II 30 Ton Turret Press Punches
- Aida NC1-15 150 Ton Press
- Eight Cincinnati 175 Ton and 230 Press Brakes
- Four Komatsu 150 Ton Punch Presses
- Three Pacific 100 PFII 100 Ton Hydraulic Presses

“This auction is a great opportunity for buyers to get quality manufacturing equipment that was used to bend and cut aluminum and metal,” said Chris Register, Vice President of Sales for Liquidity Services. “All assets within the two-day auction event starting on May 20, 2020 must be sold, providing buyers a unique opportunity to purchase in a no reserve auction event.”
